

When people say the word, "BUFFALO" I should not get mad.

This animal is an American Bison.
It is also called a Buffalo.

There is a city called Buffalo, New York.

These chicken wings are called "Buffalo Wild Wings." YUM!

Eamon goes to the University of Colorado.
Their football team is called "The Colorado Buffalos".

People can say "BUFFALO" and mean an animal, a city a food or a team. I should not get mad when people say "buffalo". I should never hit or push or hurt people who say "buffalo". I can always use my words to tell someone I don't like what they are saying to me, or walk away and ask a grown up for help.
